On 13 June 1995, the public broadcaster of the Flemish Community in Belgium, BRTN, presented its plans for the coming years to the Flemish Council. The BRTN-Decree of 27 March 1991 obliges BRTN to ask for the approval of its activities from the Flemish Council. The present document is the fifth in a row and covers the period until the year 2000.

BRTN highlights its programme policy and asks the Flemish Council to allow more flexibility and less hierarchic structures so as to enable it to adapt quickly to new technological developments.
