GB-FR – Films Co-Production Agreement between United Kingdom and France

On 8 November 1994 a Co-Production Agreement has been signed between the United Kingdom and France. It entered into force on 7 February 1995, replacing a former one dated 21 September 1965.

The Agreement applies to films made by one or more French (or resident in France) producers together with one or more British (or resident in the United Kingdom) producers. It includes co-productions with a third (co-)producer, meaning a producer from a country with which France and/or the UK have signed a Co-Production Agreement or from a country which is a party to the European Convention for Cinematographic Co-production.

Financial and creative contribution shall be at least 20% in the case of bilateral co-productions.

As an exception, financial co-productions are admissible. They must involve a minority participation of between 20% and 30% of the production cost.

For further information contact:
- Department for culture, media and sport of the United Kingdom http://www.culture.gov.uk/global/contact_us/default.htm
- Centre national de la cinématographie - Direction financière et juridique
http://www.cnc.fr/index_dyn.htm?h_infos_pratiques/r2/ssrub1/p1_d1_textes.htm

- (-)

Britta Probol

European Audiovisual Observatory

The objective of IRIS is to publish information on legal and law-related policy developments that are relevant to the European audiovisual sector. Despite our efforts to ensure the accuracy of the content, the ultimate responsibility for the truthfulness of the facts on which we report is with the authors of the articles. Any opinions expressed in the articles are personal and should in no way be interpreted as representing the views of any organisations represented in its editorial board.

© European Audiovisual Observatory, Strasbourg (France)