

G7: Communique of the 'G-7' Summit in Halifax

IRIS 1995-7:1/2

*Ad van Loon
European Audiovisual Observatory*

The Heads of State and Government of seven major industrialized nations and the President of the European Commission, have met in Halifax for their 21st annual Summit. They announced that they were committed to the successful completion of current negotiations in services sectors and, in particular, significant liberalization in financial and telecommunications services. They will proceed with follow-up work foreseen in the Uruguay Round Final Act. They encourage work in areas such as technical standards, intellectual property; an immediate priority is the negotiation in the OECD of a high standard multilateral agreement on investment. They will begin discussions with their partners in the WTO.

Communique of the "G-7" summit in Halifax. The full text of the final communique was published in Europe Documents, annexed to Europe, Agence internationale d'information pour la presse No 1941, 28 June 1995: 1-6.

