On 27 July 1964 a Co-Production Agreement has been signed between Germany and Belgium, which entered into force on the same day.

The Agreement applies to cultural and feature films as well as to documentaries, made by one or more German producers in conjunction with one or more Belgian producers. Third country producers may join.

Financial contribution of a co-producer shall be at least 30% (in the case of multilateral co-productions or as an exception, 20% are the minimum).
