On 29 August 1990, a Co-Production Agreement was signed between France and Iceland. It entered into force on 1 June 1991.

The Agreement applies to cinematographic works (full-length as well as short films) made by producers coming out of or being resident in a Member State of the European Economic Union. Third country producers may join the co-production, if their country is linked to France or Iceland by a films co-production agreement.

Financial contribution shall be at least 20%.
