On 8 February 1989 a Co-Production Agreement was signed between Spain and Portugal. It entered into force on 1 August 1990.

The Agreement applies to feature films, animated films and documentaries irrespective of their length or medium. Those involved in the making of the film must be Spanish or Portuguese nationals or must be residents in the respective countries. Producers from third countries may join the co-production, if their country is linked to Spain or Portugal by a films co-production agreement.

Financial participation shall be at least 20% of the total cost of the film, even in the case of multilateral co-productions.
